BLU UPDATE DECEMBER 2012

"I'd be safe and warm. If I was in L.A. California dreamin' On such a winter's day." California Dreamin' by The Mamas and Papas.

Hydrotherapy pool and spa. The hydrotherapy pool has had a major overhaul, and although there were a couple of initial hitches, it now seems to be operating as it should. The overhead and underwater jets are no longer user controlled; they each work on a 15 minute timer, alternating between the two. So the water is never still. To ensure the pool works efficiently, it is important that it is thoroughly cleaned each week and for this to be carried out, not only the pool but the whole spa suite needs to close. Having checked attendance figures, Fusion have decided to close the spa at 8pm on Fridays for cleaning. We know this will disappoint a few users, but this work is essential.

Yoga Classes The timetable of classes led by independent teachers is on the BLU website: www.brockwelllido.com. You can simply turn up to these as they usually have spaces, and pay the teacher directly.

GREAT NEWS! The Lido Café is offering a 50% discount to all winter swimmers for any hot drink. Daniel Edwards, who runs the café, says, "We see most winter swimmers each day, so we know who is who, and we value their custom and consider this a little thank you"

Winter swimming: Changing room gossip. Having just left the pool, a shivering, regular winter swimmer, wrapped in two towels and two swimming hats, was recently heard commenting on the temperature of the water that morning (5.4 degrees). Everyone agreed it really was rather cold, when another swimmer pointed out that of course no one had to turn out to swim, the exercise was not compulsory. The shivering swimmer commented through chattering teeth: "Yes, it's not compulsory, but it is compulsive!" Everyone agreed!

Wednesday 2 January Normal opening times

In previous years gym attendance in late afternoon/early evening during Christmas/New Year holiday periods has not been high. BLU has been in discussion with the Lido Manager about this year's opening/closing hours, as shown above. We think these timings are reasonable. But they are something of an experiment for this season. So USE YOUR GYM this year otherwise opening times may be shorter at Christmas 2013!! Winter swimming continues at normal times during the holiday period.
